Grand Knights Corner

Gentlemen,

The end of June marks the end of our Fraternal year. We are currently behind on recruiting and need to make a strong push. There are plenty of 1st Degrees that we can get our candidates to. If you have thought of asking someone to join you in the Knights, think no more and ask the question.

We finished strong through a very busy part of our activity schedule. Thank you to all that made our Fish Fries, Breakfasts, concession stands, WinCo cookouts, Easter festivities and anything else I may be missing, a success. Our next big project is the Firework Stand. If you have worked in the past or considered working we need you. We will be putting out more information and sign-up sheets. Please step-up and help us out.

The Knights kicked off the softball season on the 18th. At press time there were no results to report. I had attached a copy of the schedule in a previous email. All are welcome to come out to Frank White Fields and support us.

Make sure to check <http://www.kofc8334.org> for current information on the council.

Vivat Jesus,

Tom Davis, Grand Knight

Memorial Day May 31, 2010

According to the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (the VA), Memorial Day historically signified the day that U.S. individuals recognized those who fought, and more importantly, those who died in the Civil War. Although it began as a tribute only to those who fought in the Civil War, it is now considered a day of observance to recognize soldiers who have fought in all U.S. wars.

The actual date of remembrance has varied over time; the VA has record of past days of observance on April 25th, May 5th, and May 30th. Since the 1970s, Memorial Day has been observed on the last day in May. Furthermore, since the year 2000, U.S. citizens have been asked to pause for one minute of silence at 3 p.m. on Memorial Day, to commemorate all who died as they served the United States; this minute of silence is called the National Moment of Remembrance.

Pentecost Sunday May 23, 2010

Why do we celebrate "Pentecost?" It is because on that day nearly two thousand years ago, the Holy Catholic Church was made known to the world by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains it this way: "The Church was made manifest to the world on the day of Pentecost by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The gift of the Spirit ushers in a new era in the 'dispensation of the mystery' - the age of the Church, during which Christ manifests, makes present, and communicates his work of salvation through the liturgy of his Church, 'until he comes.' [1 Cor. 11:26] In this age of the Church Christ now lives and acts in and with his Church, in a new way appropriate to this new age. He acts through the sacraments in what the common Tradition of the East and the West calls 'the sacramental economy'; this is the communication (or 'dispensation') of the fruits of Christ's Paschal mystery in the celebration of the Church's 'sacramental' liturgy."

"On that day (of Pentecost), the Holy Trinity is fully revealed. Since that day, the Kingdom announced by Christ has been open to those who believe in him: in the humility of the flesh and in faith, they already share in the communion of the Holy Trinity. By his coming, which never ceases, the Holy Spirit causes the world to enter into the "last days," the time of the Church, the Kingdom already inherited though not yet consummated."

"The fullness of the Spirit was not to remain uniquely the Messiah's, but was to be communicated to the whole messianic people. [Ezek. 36:25-7; Joel 3:1-2] On several occasions Christ promised this outpouring of the Spirit, a promise which he fulfilled first on Easter Sunday and then more strikingly at Pentecost. Filled with the Holy Spirit the apostles began to proclaim "the mighty works of God," and Peter declared this outpouring of the Spirit to be the sign of the messianic age. Those who believed in the apostolic preaching and were baptized received the gift of the Holy Spirit in their turn."

Slightly changing the subject, do you know that there is an association between the words "Pentecost" and "Catholic?" I am sure that most of you are aware of the fact that the word "Catholic" means "universal." While this is true, it should be applied in the sense of "according to the totality" or "in keeping with the whole."

"The Church is catholic because Christ is present in her. 'Where there is Christ Jesus, there is the Catholic Church.' In her subsists the fullness of Christ's body united with its head; this implies that she receives from him 'the fullness of the means of salvation' which he has willed: correct and complete confession of faith, full sacramental life, and ordained ministry in apostolic succession. The Church was, in this fundamental sense, catholic on the day of Pentecost and will always be so until the day of Parousia."

In the New Testament, "Parousia" means the Second Coming of Christ. The principal Gospel texts related to this are: Mt. 10:21-4, 16:27, 24:25; Mk. 9:38, Chapter 13; Lk. 9:26, and 21:5-33. The way in which Our Lord spoke of this Second Coming are connected with other sayings referring to the establishment of the Kingdom of God and to the destruction of Jerusalem, which took place in 70 A.D.

In summary, the celebration of Pentecost represents the fiftieth day on which:

- 1) The Church received the outpouring of the Holy Spirit;
- 2) The founding of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church that has the fullness of the means of salvation;
- 3) The beginning of the age when Jesus communicates His work of salvation through the liturgy of the Church;
- 4) The beginning of the dispensation of the Church Sacraments;
- 5) The ordained ministry in apostolic succession; and,
- 6) The arrival of the invisible Kingdom of God on earth in Jerusalem, a Kingdom already inherited though not yet consummated.
