The Feast of All Saints Nov 1, 2016:

is a Holy Day of Obligation, the Church honoring all Saints, known and unknown. While we have information about many Saints, and we honor them on specific days, there are many unknown or unsung Saints, who may have been forgotten, or never been specifically honored. On All Saints Day, we celebrate these Saints of the Lord, and ask for their prayers and intercessions.

The whole concept of All Saints Day is tied in with the concept of the Communion of Saints. This is the belief that all of God's people, on heaven, earth, and in the state of purification (called Purgatory), are connected in a communion. In other words, the Saints of God are just as alive as you and I, and are constantly interceding on our behalf. Remember, our connection with the Saints in heaven is one grounded in a tight-knit communion.

The Saints are not divine, nor omnipresent or omniscient. However, because of our common communion with and through Jesus Christ, our prayers are joined with the heavenly community of Christians.

The Catholic Catechism concisely describes this communion among believers, by which we are connected to Christ, and thus to one another:

“Being more closely united to Christ, those who dwell in heaven fix the whole Church more firmly in holiness...They do not cease to intercede with the Father for us...So by their fraternal concern is our weakness greatly helped”.

Isn't Celebrating All Saints Day Idolatry?

Many non-Catholics, especially those from more fundamentalist backgrounds, assume that celebrating the saints means somehow worshipping them. This leads some Christians to claim that All Saints Day is an idolatrous holiday. The Church, East and West, has always distinguished between worship (latría), given to God alone, and veneration (dulia), which may be given to the Saints. The highest form of veneration (hyperdulia) is due to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Remembering and honoring the Saints are beneficial practices, because to remember the heroes of the faith and follow their examples are good things. Many Christians seem to strongly oppose remembering and celebrating the lives of great Christian men and women, yet have no problem celebrating the lives of secular heroes like George Washington. All Saints Day is kind of like a Christian Memorial Day or Presidents Day, a day to celebrate the lives of all the great heroes of the Christian faith, and to celebrate the deep communion we have with them. While celebrating secular heroes is admirable, how much more admirable is celebrating those who fully dedicated their lives to Christ!
